

Mr. and Mrs. Clyne,

I just wanted to take the time to thank you for the wonderful gift that you have presented to me. I understand that it was not necessary for you to supply me with any type of financial grant, but I am extremely appreciated of you doing so. I've come a long way throughout my educational career, and your ability to notice my growth and efforts have made my accomplishments feel worthwhile. What you both are doing, through Gregg's foundation, comes from such a genuine place in both of your hearts and it does not go unnoticed. It is truly people like you that make the world a better place, and I am so grateful to have been able to be considered throughout your process of decision and I am even more honored that I was chosen as a recipient of this opportunity. Not only have you assisted in the success of my college career, but you have also given me the chance to become a lasting piece of Gregg's foundation, which is more than just a gift within itself. I am incredibly appreciative of Gregg's aspiration to start a foundation in his name, he is providing both relief and joy to numerous families and young adults starting the next chapter of their lives' at the University of Delaware. I admire what you both have done in the absence of Gregg, and I am sure that he would be more than proud of what you have accomplished. Please know that being chosen by your foundation as a commendable person means more to me than any amount of money provided by an impersonal source.

Thank you again for this wonderful gift,

Emily Williams
